He shall be required within a reasonable time to put in a written statement of his defence and to state whether he desires to be heard in person. If he so desires, or if the authority concerned so directs, an inquiry shall be held. At that inquiry, oral evidence shall be heard and recorded as to such of the allegations as are not admitted and the person charged shall be entitled to cross examine witnesses, to give evidence in person and to have such witnesses called as he may wish, provided that the inquiring officer may, for sufficient reasons to be recorded, refuse to call a witness. The proceedings shall contain a record of the evidence, a statement of the findings and the grounds thereof. The disciplinary authority shall consider the record of the inquiry, record its findings on each charge and pass appropriate order thereon.

(2) These Regulations shall not apply where the person concerned has absconded, or where for other reasons it is impracticable to communicate with him. All or any of the provisions of this regulation may, in exceptional cases for sufficient reasons to be recorded, be waived off by the Board, where there is difficulty to observe exactly the requirements of these Regulations without doing injustice to the person charged.

60. Procedure for imposing minor penalty. — No order imposing any of the minor penalties specified in clause (a) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 58 shall be passed except after the employee is informed in writing of the proposal to take action against him and of the allegation on which action is proposed to be taken and given an opportunity to make a representation.

61. Termination of services. — Services of an employee can be terminated—

- (a) in the case of an employee appointed on probation during or at the end of the period of probation, in accordance with the terms of his appointment;
- (b) in the case of a person appointed otherwise than under a contract to hold a temporary appointment, on the expiration of the period for which he was appointed; and
- (c) in the case of a person employed under an agreement in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

62. Pay and allowances on re-instatement. — (1) When an employee who has been dismissed, removed, or suspended, is reinstated, he may be allowed the difference between full pay with allowances and the subsistence grant, at the discretion of the Disciplinary Authority. In such a case the period of absence from duty shall be treated as a period spent on duty for all purposes.

(2) The pay and allowances of an employee who is removed or dismissed from service shall cease from the date of removal or dismissal. Leave shall not be granted to an employee when the authority competent under these Regulations to impose the penalty has decided to dismiss, remove, or compulsorily retire him from the service of the Board.

63. Appeal. — (1) An appeal in the case of group A, B and C employees shall lie to the Board and that of group D employees shall be to the Chairperson.

(2) An employee may appeal to the appellate authority from an order by any subordinate authority imposing any of the penalties mentioned in regulation 58.

(3) An appeal shall also lie against—

- (a) an order of suspension;
- (b) an order reverting an employee to a lower class or post, officiating in a higher class or post otherwise than as a penalty; and
- (c) an order determining the pay and allowances for the period of suspension to be paid to an employee on his reinstatement or determining whether or not such period shall be treated as a period spent on duty for any purpose.

64. Forms and contents of appeal. — (1) An appeal shall be preferred within one month of the date on which the appellant was informed of the order appealed against.

(2) It shall contain all material statements and arguments relied on by the appellant and shall contain no disrespectful or improper language and shall be complete in itself.

(3) Every such appeal shall be submitted through the Chief Executive Officer or through the authority from whose order the appeal is preferred.

65. Withholding of appeal. — (1) The authority which made the order appealed against may withhold an appeal if—

- (a) it is an appeal against an order from which no appeal lies; or
- (b) it does not comply with any of the provisions of regulation 64; or
- (c) it is a repetition of an appeal already decided and no new facts or circumstances are adduced:

Provided that an appeal withheld on the ground that it does not comply with the provisions of sub-regulations (2) or (3) of regulation 64 shall be returned to the appellant and if resubmitted within one month thereof after compliance with the said provisions, shall not be withheld.

(2) Where an appeal is withheld, the appellant shall be informed of the facts and the reasons thereof.

66. Transmission of appeal. — (1) The authority which made the order appealed against shall, without any avoidable delay, transmit to the appellate authority every appeal which is not withheld under regulation 65 and thereupon such appeal shall be transmitted to that authority together with the comments thereon with the relevant record.

(2) The authority to which the appeal lies may direct transmission to it of any appeal withheld under regulation 65 and thereupon such appeal shall be transmitted to that authority by the person withholding the appeal and the relevant record.

67. Consideration of appeal. — (1) In the case of an appeal against an order of suspension, the appellate authority shall consider whether in the light of the provisions of regulation 57 and having regard to the circumstances of the case the order of suspension is justified or not. He may confirm or revoke the order.

(2) In the case of other appeals, the appellate authority shall consider—

- (a) whether the procedure prescribed in these Regulations has been complied with, and if not, whether such noncompliance has resulted in failure of justice; and
- (b) whether the penalty imposed is excessive, adequate or inadequate and after such consideration, pass such order as it thinks proper.

68. Implementation of order in appeal. — The authority which made the order appealed against, shall give effect to the order passed by the appellate authority.

69. Service conditions of imams, muezzins, caretakers, khadims and mujawirs shall be as follows. — (1) Provisions of regulations from 47 to 68 shall not apply to imams, muezzins, caretakers, khadims, and mujawirs.

(2) The vacancies for the posts of imams, muezzins, caretakers, khadims and mujawirs shall be filled up by inviting applications. The qualifications for the posts of imams and muezzins shall be a certificate of Aalim, Hafiz or Nazira or its equivalent from a reputed Islamic Educational Institution. The candidate shall have to appear before the Appointments

Committee for this purpose. A panel of two names for each post shall be drawn by the Appointments Committee and sent to the Board, which shall select one out of two names for each post recommended by the Appointments Committee.

(3) The remuneration to be paid to Imams, Muezzins, caretaker, etc. may be fixed by the Board, on the recommendations of the Masjid and Qabristan Committee.

(4) The imams and the muezzins may be allotted a Hujra at the discretion of the Board for their residence in the mosque where such Hujra exists.

(5) The imam or muezzin shall not allow any person to stay in the Hujra. The imam or the muezzin occupying the rooms/areas in excess of the Hujra attached to the mosque, shall be liable to pay license fee as determined by the Board.

(6) The imam or muezzin shall not start a Madrassa in the mosque.

(7) The imam or muezzin shall not make any construction in the mosque without the prior permission of the Board.

(8) The transfer of imams and muezzins shall be at the discretion of the Board and shall be complied within seven days.

(9) The duty hours of the imams and the muezzins by their very nature, are part-time. i.e., leading five-time prayers and upkeep of the mosque. However, this may be varied from time to time, as determined by the Board in consultation with the local persons (Muqtdadis) where the mosque is situated.

(10) A person to be appointed as caretaker, khadim or mujawir shall be "Bashara," be regular in the observance of Roza and Namaz, be acquainted with "Fateha and Durood" and be physically fit to maintain the Dargah; or as determined by the Board.

(11) The Imams, muezzins, khadims, mujawirs and caretakers shall not be entitled for regularization in service or parity in pay with other employees of the Board.

(12) Breach of any condition of sub-regulation (5), (6), (7) and (8) shall be construed as misconduct entailing termination of their services without notice forthwith.

(13) Register containing particulars of imams, muezzins, khadims, caretakers and mujawirs shall be maintained in Form – VIII.

(14) The age of retirement of imams, muezzins, caretakers, khadims and mujawirs shall be at the age of 60 years.

70. Conduct and other conditions of the Board employees. — (1) The following shall be the norms and standards for the conduct of the employees of the Board in public interest—

(a) Every employee of the Board shall at all times maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty;

(b) no employee of the Board shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, permit his son, daughter, wife, husband or dependent to accept employment with any waqf with which he has official dealing or with any other institution having official dealings with the Board;

(c) save as otherwise provided in these Regulations, no employee of the Board shall, except with its previous sanction, accept or permit any member of his family to accept directly or indirectly on his behalf or on behalf of any other person, any gift of substantial value, unreasonable gratuity or reward from a person not related to him;

(d) no employee of the Board shall directly or indirectly engage in the business of money lending;

(e) an employee of the Board is prohibited from having pecuniary relations with any mutawalli or with staff or establishment of any waqf or other institution;

(f) except with the previous sanction of the Board, no land belonging to any waqf may be granted on lease to any employee of the Board, whether in permanent or temporary employment;

(g) no employee of the Board shall acquire any immovable property anywhere in India by purchase or gift without the previous sanction of the Board;

(h) except with the previous sanction of the Board, an employee of the Board shall not purchase any movable property for a value exceeding rupees ten thousand;

(i) every employee of the Board, shall make to the Board, through proper channel, a declaration of all immovable properties which may, from time to time be held or acquired by him or his wife or by any member of his family, living with him or in any way dependent upon him;

(j) if in any disciplinary inquiry against an employee of the Board or charges of corruption, it is proved that the employee of the Board or any person on his behalf is in possession, or has, at any time during the period of office of such employee, been in possession for which such employee cannot satisfactorily account, of pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to his known source of income then on such proof it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that such employee of the Board is guilty of misconduct;

(k) no employee of the Board shall serve or accept paid employment in any company or firm or other institution or act as an agent, whether paid by salary or commission to any insurance company or society etc.:

Provided that sitting fees accepted by an employee of the Board who is elected or nominated to the Board of Directors or Committee of a Co-operative Society, etc. shall not be treated as remuneration for the purpose of this clause.

(l) no employee of the Board shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, engage directly or indirectly in any trade or business or undertake any employment provided that an employee of the Board may, without such sanction, undertake honorary work of charitable nature or occasional work of a literary, artistic or scientific character, subject to the condition that his official duties do not thereby suffer, but he shall not undertake or shall discontinue such work if so directed by the Board;

(m) employee of the Board shall avoid habitual indebtedness;

(n) no employee of the Board shall, except in accordance with the special or general order of the Board, communicate directly or indirectly any official document or information to any employee of the Board not authorized to receive the same or to any non-official person or to any Trust;

(o) no employee of the Board shall, by any utterance, writing or otherwise discuss or criticize in public or at any meeting or association or body, any policy pursued, or action taken by the Board nor shall in any manner participate in such discussion or criticism;

(p) no employee of the Board shall give evidence before a Public Committee, except with the previous sanction of the Board;

(q) except with the previous sanction of the Board, no employee of the Board shall offer himself as a candidate for election to local authorities or other institutions;

(r) no employee of the Board shall, except with the previous sanction of the Board, have recourse to any court or the press for the vindication of his official acts or character from defamatory attacks. Nothing in this rule shall derogate from the right of an employee of the Board to vindicate for his private acts or character;

(s) when an employee of the Board is suspended, he must give his address to the head of his office. He must also give his address to the officer, if any, holding an inquiry into his conduct. He must obey all orders to attend any inquiry into his conduct and if he fails to do so, the inquiry may be held in his absence;

(t) if any question arises as to the interpretation of these Regulations, the decision of the Board shall be final;

(u) except as expressly provided for in these Regulations, the provisions of CCS (CCA) Rules shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the employees of the Board;

(v) where any officer or employee, of the Board is found guilty of any negligence or breach of Rules, Regulations or orders in consequence of which pecuniary loss has been caused to the Board, the Chief Executive Officer may, in addition to any other punishment to which he is liable with respect to such negligence or breach, may order that the whole or any portion of the loss, shall be made good by such officer or employee;

(w) no officer or employee of the Board who is convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude shall be retained in the service of the Board.
